Representative Rob Brooks Inaugurated for a Fourth Term

Madison, WI—Today, the Assembly held an inauguration ceremony for the 105th session of Wisconsin’s State Assembly. Representative Rob Brooks (R-Saukville) was sworn-in for a fourth term to the 60th Assembly District.

“I am honored to continue serving as a voice for my constituents in Madison. I look forward to being a bold advocate for conservative change within my caucus. Just like many of you, I have become disappointed by and angered with the legislature’s inaction over the past nine months. For that reason, I challenged Robin Vos for Speaker of the Assembly. Despite an unsuccessful effort, I will continue fighting for my conservative principles. This session, I plan to address election reform, sustainable transportation funding, and policies that support small businesses,” said Representative Brooks.

Representative Brooks will serve on the Assembly Committees on Housing and Real Estate, Insurance, Local Government, State Affairs, Transportation, Ways and Means, and the Joint Survey Committee on Retirement Systems.

“At the start of this new session, Wisconsin continues to battle COVID-19, and I will make it a priority to support solutions that provide our local health departments with the flexibly and tools they need to address the pandemic. My focus for this session stays the same – ensuring Wisconsin remains a strong state to live, work, and raise a family,” stated Representative Brooks.
